

DEATH TAKES CHRIS WIAND

Prominent Pt. Wash- ington Resident

Christian Wiand, 89, prominent retired Port Washington hardware merchant and father of County Commissioner Curtis V. Wiand, died at his home in that village at 11:30 p. m. yesterday of complications and infirmities of age following a lingering illness. He had been bedfast two weeks.

Mr. Wiand was one of the most prominent men in the southern end of the county and had been in business for nearly 60 years. He retired several years ago when his son took over the business. He was a member of the Port Washington Moravian church and was active in civic life of the village.

Surviving are a son, Curtis V. Wiand; four sisters, Mrs. F. B. Moery, this city, Mrs. Anna Schindler, Tuscarawas; Mrs. Jerusha Demuth, Gnadenhutten, and Mrs. Ida Sperling, Cleveland; and five grandchildren, Paul Wiand, Dennison, J. Robert Wiand, student at Ohio University; Dr. R. E. Ley, Dover, Lester Ley, Canton, and Mrs. Irma Murphy, this city. Mrs. Wiand died in 1922.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Port Washington Moravian church with Rev. Wedman officiating. Burial will be made in the Port Washington cemetery in charge of the Gengnagle Funeral Home.

Mr. Wiand was born November 27th, 1844 at Lewisville, O. He came to Port Washington when a young man and resided there since that time. He was a son of the late Henry and Mary Wiand.
